Washington D.C.
April 12. 1864.

Mr Chester Adams

Dear Sir:

I am becoming anxious to hear from you. to know how you are getting along, write the first opportunity and let me hear if we have any more cold & Ladies & Garments have got their cold or are dead. and if you have heard from Miss. It has been very cold and damp weather here has it been so there with you. has the grass sprung any. is there any chance of getting any cows upon any of my claims, or must I

P.S. Adams
Apr 12 1864

send the money. Let me hear Everything that will interest me, and how you
get along generally:
I should be at home about
the Middle of May:

Truly yours
C. P. Adams

Close transcription: The following transcription has been provided by VCPL staff. The punctuation and spacing differ from the original. The words are transcribed to the best of the reader's ability with marks indicative of uncertainty where it is necessary.

Washington D.C.

April 12, 1862

Mr. Chester Adams

Dear sir,

I am becoming anxious to hear from you, to know how you are getting along. With the first opportunity and let me hear if [we] have any [more calls of?] [fa???] [???]have got their [calls or?] are dead, and if you have heard from Niff: It has been very cold and rough weather here. Has it been so there with you? Has the [grass sprung?]any? Is there any chance of getting any cows upon any of my claims, or must I send the money? Let me hear everything that will interest me. And how you get along generally: I should be at home about the Middle of May.

Truly yours,
J.P. Usher